February/March 2019
Volume 4, Issue 5

Spring has sprung as we near the end of Marking Period 3 of the 2018-19 School Year, and we enter a very busy, very exciting final quarter! From snow days in February to a full month of school in March, staff and students are busy learning and preparing for everything left in store for TEAM COMMUNITY. Below you will find pictures representing just a small sample of all of the awesome experiences had over the last few months. For even more happenings at CMS, please follow us on Twitter. See below for details! As always, our Daily Announcements can help you stay aware of all of the latest and greatest at CMS. Enjoy the highlights below, and thanks for your support, and for being a part of our larger school community.

Students in science had experiences including testing airplanes and coasters to hearing from parents in the field!

We continue to recognize students for displaying traits each month. February was Kindness & Caring.

We celebrated the wonderful work of our school counselors during National School Counseling Week!

CMS hosted Museums in Motion who curated another great Black History Month exhibit for the school.

Student Council ran a very successful 3v3 basketball tournament for March Madness!

Many of our student groups, including Math Counts, Science Olympiad, and FPS, were honored at tournaments.

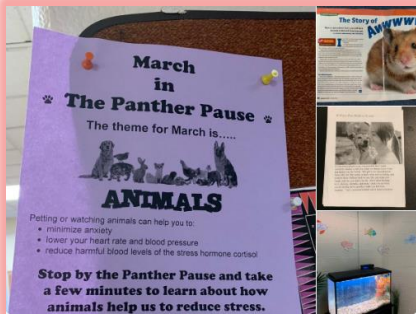

Students, staff, and parents on our Stakeholder Team continue their work on School Climate and Culture!

Our CMS artists hard their work on display throughout the community for the WWP Youth Art Show.

Thank you to all of our staff, students, and families for supporting this year's excellent musical!

Thanks to efforts from our staff, student organizations, and parent volunteers – we continue to promote wellness in our Panther Pause.

Students were treated to a trip to the NBA Executive Offices in NJ to take a look at career opportunities in sports beyond the court!

Student groups, like our Maker Ambassadors, and staff experts shared plenty of strategies for teaching and learning at the Educator EXPO.

Did you know you can get involved in a variety of ways through our community support groups? Click the pictures for more information!

Quote of the Month

“The beautiful spring came; and when Nature resumes her loveliness, the human soul is apt to revive also.”
