

The CMS Counseling Department
presents a special program for middle school parents

Raising an adolescent doesn't come with a manual!

I don't know what to do sometimes.

School is different for my kid than it was for me.

Why is she always on her phone?

Lighting the Way: A Parent's Guide to Navigating The Middle School Years

Thursday, April 11, 2019

7:00 – 9:00pm

Community Middle School Commons

Join Middle School Counselors Ellen Burgess, Colleen Pedersen and Faith Scibienski and Student Assistance Counselor Ariana Efstathios for a reflective discussion of what it means to be a middle school student in the “iGeneration.” You will walk away with a reassurance that you're not alone in your quest to understand your child, and with useful information and tools to strengthen you for the journey.
